20th May

10:30 – 3:30pm Holiday at Home (at St John's)

Themed like a country show – with produce to judge, games to play and Scott helping our guests understand the meaning of 'the lost sheep', this will be a great opportunity to share life and faith at this day out.

7th July

1:30 pm Games Afternoon in church

It is our intention to make sessions as accessible as possible to those with hearing difficulties through the use of an induction loop system.

Wednesday at 10 is an informal get-together for those who are retired, run by St John Newland church. It aims to provide an opportunity to meet with others for encouragement in the Christian life.
